Your AGL household electricity bill explained

1. Here's who to call for help

Find the important numbers you might need, fast.

For queries about your electricity account, or tailored assistance and advice, call or visit us online at AGL.

If you experience a power outage or an unexpected loss of energy supply to your property, we've made it easy for you to find the contact number for your distribution company. Your Distributor is responsible for the poles, wires and reliability of energy supply in your area, and is best placed to provide assistance.

2. Your account details for handy reference

It's easy to see your account details at a glance.

Your account number shown here is specific to your electricity account, and you should quote it when you contact us with any queries.

If you need to make any changes to your personal details, it's easy to do so any time at My Account.

3. How do you compare to nearby homes?

This graph provides a comparison of your electricity usage with other homes in your area. It's based on the average usage of electricity for the season and whether there is gas or a pool at the home.

We work out this comparison based on average usage data supplied by the Australian Energy Regulator. For a more detailed comparison, visit our easy online monitoring tool, My Account.

4. Your average daily usage and costs

In this section, it's clear to see how much electricity you're using.

The graph displays your average electricity usage and costs over the past 13 months. The Snapshot shows a summary of your average daily costs and usage for the specific billing period, and your average usage at the same time last year so you can see if it has changed.

Notice a difference in your average daily usage? There are several factors which could change your average daily usage, such as the installation of new electrical appliances or a shift in your usage habits.

You can also monitor your usage by using our online service, My Account. It lets you track your energy usage and costs by helping you identify when you use energy most and find ways to adjust how and when you use energy to maximise your savings. Find out more at agl.com.au/myaccount

5. Clearly see what to pay and when

We've made it simple to see how much you need to pay and by when.

Your bill overview shows the balance brought forward (any amount carried over from previous bills, which may include any unpaid balance or credits). This is added to your new charges for this billing period to arrive at the total amount due.

Please note that overdue amounts from previous bills may have a different due date, which will be shown in this section and on the back of your bill.

If you make your payments by Direct Debit or Bill Smoothing, you'll see your payment date, amount and frequency listed.

If you're eligible for a Pay on Time Discount, you'll see the full amount due followed by the discounted amount if you pay by the due date.

6. AGL's latest offers and services

This is where to look for great new AGL products and services that may assist in managing your energy account, as well as help you save energy and money.

7. Find more useful information

Staying informed about changes that may affect your account is simple.

We'll keep you up-to-date with additional AGL product and service information, as well as any pricing, industry or regulatory changes here.

8. Important information is listed here

Need further assistance?

You'll find information about payment assistance, interpreters, moving your electricity to a new home and other important service messages in this section.

9. View your electricity supply details

You'll find your electricity supply details clearly listed in one place.

This includes information about your electricity supply for the supply period (the period covered by this bill), and the specific Energy Plan you're on. Plus, this is where you'll find the NMI (National Meter Identifier), a unique identifier linked to your supply address. You may be required to quote this number if you have work carried out on your supply.

10. Find your meter read details here

In this section, you'll find your meter read details, including whether an actual or estimated read has been taken.

These are used to calculate your electricity bill for the billing period.

If you have a smart meter, the reading will be a guide only and may not reflect the total amount of electricity you have used in this billing period. Your bills will be calculated using half hourly intervals of data provided to us. To see your detailed usage, visit agl.com.au/myaccount

Under this table, you may also find important messages about your meter, including your next scheduled meter read date, or any issues encountered when gaining access to your property.

11. Here's how we worked out your bill

We've broken down your electricity charges into a simple structure, so you can better understand how we've worked out your bill.

Under the previous balance and payments section, we list any payments you've made, and any discounts we've applied, to show the final balance brought forward to this bill.

The new charges and credits section is divided into units and prices for this billing period, according to your electricity rates. We list your new charges for your electricity supply and usage, plus any credits, discounts, concessions and adjustments we've applied to this bill.

The final total amount shown here includes the applicable GST.

12. Find your payment details here

Under the payment amount and due date, you'll see your reference number. You'll need to quote this, when requested, for most payment methods.

If you're paying by cheque, remember to cut off this lower section of the bill as marked and include it with the cheque when posting.

If you're paying in person at a post office, simply present your bill so the code here can be scanned to record your payment.

13. See all our payment options here

We offer seven convenient ways to pay your electricity bill including Direct Debit, which takes the hassle out of paying your bills and helps you ensure you always pay your bills on time.
